

Debrief, Reflection, and Feedback Activity

1. What is working well?
  - What about your communication style/approach (as a team) is working?
  - What technology is supporting your success?
2. How do you measure success as a team?
  - What indicators of performance, efficiency, and satisfaction have you identified?
3. What's still puzzling you about how to move forward?
  - Do you need to adjust roles?
  - Do you need to adjust your communication approach?
  - Have you encountered changes in the team that are impacting your success?
4. What is a strength that each team member contributed to the project?
(team member self-reports first, then others offer feedback)
5. What is one area of improvement for each team member?
(team member self-reports first, then others offer feedback)
